

Timberlane Market & Bistro

— Premium Meats & Homemade Favorites —

A favorite among El Dorado food lovers, Timberlane Market & Bistro has found a new home in the heart of downtown, bringing together a traditional neighborhood meat market and a comfortable lunch destination under one roof at Main and Washington Streets.

The business was founded in 2010 by local cattleman John Milam. He quickly earned a loyal following for his premium products and custom service. Following Milam's passing, Alan Tyson purchased the business and has continued that tradition while expanding its offerings to a downtown presence.

The new location occupies the former La Bella Gourmet Gifts & Delicatessen building and provides an opportunity to build on Timberlane's reputation while creating a complete dining experience. "We wanted to take the business to the next level and being downtown gives us the opportunity to better serve our customers," Tyson says.

Today, Timberlane offers much more than its signature fresh-cut meats. Customers can enjoy made-from-scratch sandwiches, salads, prepared dinners, and an ever-growing selection of specialty foods. The lunch menu features generously portioned sandwiches, chicken strips and wings and a wide array of homemade sides.

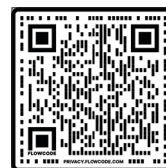

Longtime employee and manager Emilie Snow says the downtown location has opened the door to even more possibilities. "We love being part of downtown," she says. "We're excited to introduce new menu items, expand our retail, and continue serving El Dorado with the products our customers deserve."

Whether you're shopping for premium steaks to grill at home, picking up a prepared family meal, or stopping in for a hearty lunch, Timberlane Market & Bistro continues to deliver hometown flavor.
