

Main Street Pizza

— A Downtown Favorite —

Some great businesses begin with a plan scribbled on a cocktail napkin. Main Street Pizza was started as a hobby for the Clayton family and grew into one of El Dorado's most popular restaurants.

The Claytons loved handcrafted pizza, especially the fresh ingredients, cracker-thin crust, and friendly service they enjoyed at Shotgun Dan's Pizza in Sherwood, Arkansas. They realized El Dorado needed a place to gather for great pizza and genuine hospitality. In 2005, that vision became Main Street Pizza.

Since opening, Main Street Pizza has built a loyal following with its signature thin crust and specialty pizzas made with premium toppings. Favorites include the Meat to Please, loaded with pepperoni, ham, Italian sausage, beef, and extra mozzarella cheese; the California Veggie, topped with artichokes, mushrooms, onions, spinach, tomatoes, and cheese; and the popular Boss Hog, featuring barbecue sauce, sliced pork, and a blend of mozzarella and cheddar cheeses.

Beyond pizza, the menu includes fresh salads, appetizers, oven-baked sub sandwiches, Coca-Cola products, draft beer, and build-your-own pizza options.

Located at the historic corner of Main and Jackson in downtown El Dorado, the restaurant occupies a building that once served as a neighborhood pharmacy. Guests enjoy a casual, welcoming atmosphere with checkered tablecloths, comfortable booths, and spacious dining areas.

More than a pizzeria, Main Street Pizza is a community gathering place where neighbors connect, friends celebrate, and visitors experience downtown El Dorado. Whether you're exploring the historic district downtown, attending a concert at MAD, or simply craving a great pizza, Main Street Pizza offers delicious food, friendly service, and a welcoming seat at the table. □
