

Fernando's Mexican Grill

— Mexican Flavor Served with Family Tradition —

For Fernando Alatorre-Olmos, opening a restaurant was never simply about serving meals, it was about creating a place where families gather for a meal, enjoy authentic Mexican cooking, and feel welcome. Years of hard work, and a passion for sharing the flavors of his heritage have transformed that dream into one of El Dorado's favorite Mexican cuisine destinations.

Fernando's traditional recipes and excellent service create an inviting atmosphere that encourages guests to celebrate their dining experience. Whether grabbing a quick lunch, enjoying an evening meal with friends, or celebrating with family, you will be greeted with hospitality that reflects the commitment to treating everyone like a guest in their home.

The menu showcases a variety of authentic Mexican specialties prepared to order. Signature favorites include the restaurant's popular Birria Tacos, featuring tender, slow-cooked beef served with rich consommé for dipping, and the flavorful Tacos de Asada, filled with grilled steak and traditional toppings. The Miranda Plate has become a customer favorite for its assortment of classic flavors, while the sizzling fajitas arrive at the table with the unmistakable aroma that turns heads in the dining room.

Another standout is the Arkansas Quesadilla, a hearty specialty that blends Mexican tradition with regional flair. Beyond the house favorites, guests will find enchiladas, burritos, chimichangas, combination platters, fresh salads, seafood selections, and a variety of traditional Mexican dishes that satisfy every appetite. Many of Fernando's menu items can be customized to accommodate dietary needs.

While the recipes keep customers coming back, it's the welcoming spirit that truly defines Fernando's Mexican Grill. Every visit reflects the family's belief that great food is best enjoyed together, making the restaurant a place where delicious meals and meaningful moments are shared around every table. □
